BACKGROUND

Following eBRAM's appointment by the Department of Justice as the technology provider for Hong Kong's first Pilot Scheme on Sports Dispute Resolution, eBRAM as the programme's LawTech service partner, has designed this Online Dispute Resolution Training Programme. Leveraging the technological capabilities applied in the Pilot Scheme—such as AI-enabled multilingual translation and blockchain-secured recordkeeping—the programme provides structured training to equip mediators and arbitrators with the essential skills required for effective technology-supported online dispute resolution.

KEY FEATURES

- Expert-led training
Cutting-edge content on legal tech applications and practical ODR platform skills delivered by industry specialists
- Practical simulation exercises
Focused, hands-on exercises covering key ODR workflows, mediation techniques, essential arbitration elements, and eBRAM platform operations to support quick skill development
- Flexible learning
Combines in-person and online classes with online simulated sports dispute cases, allowing self-paced learning anytime, anywhere
- Global certification
Graduates receive eBRAM certification, boosting international competitiveness
